Views:

There are temporary disruptions in the economy due to geopolitical crisis and higher inflation. However, Indian economy is better placed than other countries including the developed world as it is more resilient, steady streak of GST Collections in excess of Rs 1.4 Lakh Crore over the past 3 months is reflective of both economic growth and strict action taken against errant taxpayers based on analytics.

Period	GST Collection Amt. (In Rs. Crs)	Growth (%)
May'21	97,821	 44.02% (YoY)
May'22	1,40,885
Dec'21 to Feb'22	4,03,792	 11.57% (Combine last 3 Months)
Mar'22 to May'22	4,50,520
Apr'22	1,67,540	 -15.91% (Month-on-Month)
May'22	1,40,885

Way Forward

- ✓ The robust goods and services tax collections indicate that the economic momentum of the country is intact.
- ✓ The real GDP numbers for FY22 were in line with earlier estimates which shows healthy pace of economic activity despite the higher inflation.
- ✓ India is better off than several developed countries and quite optimistic on investment demand. It is expected that the positive trend in the revenues will continue in the current month. We expect GST collection to be in the range of ₹ 1.4 to ₹ 1.5 Lakh Crore for the next 6-7 Months.
